Madylan Louise Yarc, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On April 16, 2024, Jenny Schroth, as mother and natural guardian of D.S., and Jeffrey Robert Schroth, as father and natural guardian of D.S., filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioners allege that D.S. suffered vasovagal syncope following human papilloma virus (“HPV”), tetanus diphtheria acellular pertussis (“Tdap”), and meningococcal conjugate vaccines received on June 29, 2023. Petition at 1. Petitioners further allege that the vaccines were administered in the United States,

D.S.'s vaccine-related injuries have lasted more than six months, and Petitioners have neither received compensation in the form of an award or settlement, nor filed a civil action, for D.S.'s vaccine-related injuries. Petition at ¶¶ 4, 49, 50. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 5, 2024, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioners are entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent agrees that "petitioners have satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table ("Table") and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation ("QAI"), which afford petitioners a presumption of causation if the onset of vasovagal syncope occurs within one hour after HPV, meningococcal, and Tdap vaccination and there is no apparent alternative cause. Id. at 6. Respondent further agrees that the records demonstrate that D.S. has suffered the residual effects of his condition for more than six months and that Petitioners have satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioners are entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
